

on's bill was reported to the Senate esday last with one small amendment ause introduced in the House by Mr. omery authorized the bringing in vesand evading or violating the law withleagues of our coast. The commit-the Senate struck out the words four s, and allow vessels to be brought in ver found. The bill is made the or-the day in Senate, on Monday next.

Ev. Post.

etter was received in Philadelphia on y, via Norfolk, by a mercantile house, another in Liverpool, dated Decemb, 1809, which states, that an Austrian ter had arrived in England, with prop-ns for a General Peace, but that it was ed he would return without accom-ng the object of his mission. e letter was totally silent in the dismis-Mr Jack on by the American Govern-, and it is therefore to be presumed that s not known in England the middle of mber.

COMMUNICATION.

ED—In this Town, the 17th instant, ABIGAIL CAMP, consort of Caleb
 p. Esq. in the 71st year of her age.— worthy Matron seems to have devoted elly to the service of her God in youth ; became a communicant of that church which she belonged. She discharged, propriety, all the social and relative du-of life and, it is believed, she adorned christian profession, through life, with ere and unaffected piety. She was uni-ally esteemed and beloved, and support-long and painful indisposition, and support-resignation to the will of her God. Her tives and friends, therefore, have conso-n in her death, as they have reason to lude, that, to her, "death was gain." der I if thou art not, be thou also ready, pared to meet thy God in death and in gment! With seriousness, listen to the eriant and affectionate advice of Solo-! "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, t with all thy might! For there is no k, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wis-in the grave, whither thou goest!"

an American Republican, No. 17, will apr in our next.
